

INGLÉS

Read the text and then answer the questions:

London is the greatest show on earth. Here in a day you can see the world. Stand at the entrance of a main-line railway station, during rush-hour, and you see every possible human species passing by. One becomes amazed by the multiplicity of the human face, by its infinite differences.

London is the only place where you can get this concentrated view: lovers in doorways, children in back-streets, singing on bus stops on Saturday nights, fish shops, cinemas, fairs, and the warmth in the winter streets generated by a million fires and a million bodies. This is what I like best of all, the feeling that one is at a non-stop party. One also wishes to know more of the human story, but this usually ends up in disappointment: in the country, personal histories are everybody's property, but in London, man is the most secret animal on earth.
